

PARENTS CORNER

Learn about ACEing Autism's newest initiative: Parents Corner. Through various opportunities, a group of parents are making a difference in the sustainability of our programs. Designed for parents who are looking to be more involved with ACEing Autism, your small commitment can help us reach more families through tennis.

We Listen. You Inspire.

Fill out THIS FORM to express your interest.

Ways you can get involved today:

TEAM PARENT

We are seeking parents interested in working with their program directors and parents:

- Assist Program Directors with communications to parents.
- Communicate feedback from program parents.
- Work with Program Directors to implement new initiatives.

PARENT AMBASSADOR

Looking for parents to help us build awareness of our program and share your experience:

- Help attract and mentor new parents locally and nationwide.
- Help connect us with adaptive physical education leaders at public & private schools
- Provide stories/testimonials for marketing materials & outreach.

PARENTS WHO RALLY

Parents who are looking to help increase the support of ACEing Autism through fundraising.

- Individual gifts made by parents or their companies.
- Peer to Peer Fundraising
- Connect network of potential donors.
- Host small beneficiary and fundraising events.

PARENTS COUNCIL

This Council will be comprised of parents with a range of careers and professional talents.

- Willing to serve in various committees for pro bono work.
- Help leverage their expertise to maximize the impact of ACEing Autism's efforts.

As a member of Parents Corner, you will be connected with other parents who share your passion and have ideas on how to help spread the word about ACEing Autism. We hope that you will become a powerful advocate for our cause, spreading the word in ways that work best for you while making a significant impact!
